Dear Ambassador Jawad,

I write you today, faced with the news that our country, through its kindness and naivety, is giving your Taliban Terrorist controlled government more than FIVE BILLION dollars in aid. FIVE BILLION dollars so that Hamid Karzai can continue to torture and imprison innocent Americans, appoint former Taliban leaders that murdered American soldiers during the liberation of Afghanistan, appoint Taliban Terrorist judges to run your courts, and engage in human rights abuses from the starvation of his people to the torture of Afghan and American prisoners in secret torture chambers such as the one located in Kabul and run by Armullah Saleh, using American money to electrocute, beat, and murder people (including Americans).

My son is a prisoner of war at Pulacharke Prison and I have now been told that:

- more than 2,000 prisoners there have been without power,
- without any form of electricity for 47 days;
- without running water for more than one year;
- without drinking water for more than one year;
- without any food but old rice and bread for more than 60 days; and,
- that the Red Cross is stealing and selling American donated blankets and clothes at the local bazaars instead of giving them to dying and sick prisoners.

During World War II, I fought as a U.S. Marine against the oppressive criminal murdering Japanese in the Pacific theater of war. We killed them as fast as we could, and after the Bataan Death March which started on April 10, 1942, the slaughter and execution of our soldiers in the Philippines, and the torture and murder of U.S. Marines by the Japanese we finally dropped nuclear weapons on them, and they rightly deserved it. Your Karzai Taliban government is a fraud upon the American people. Unfortunately, at 85 years old, I am too old and sick to fly to Afghanistan and fight you myself for what you are doing to my son and the other Americans there while your terrorist president takes our money and lies to our face.

If the human rights abuses against my son continue, and you do not immediately restore electricity, water, and food to the Pulacharke Prisoner of War camp within 72 hours I am directing my attorneys to sue your government to stop the aid package from being sent from American taxpayers to Afghanistan to used for terrorist activities by a pro-Taliban Karzai government.

And American officials are complicit in illegal activities too. US Consul Adrienne Harchick has refused to deliver mail and relief parcels to prisoners, including American holiday parcels, claiming they violate the Muslim religion (Thanksgiving and Christmas).

US Ambassador Zalmay Khalilzad has engaged in a wide range of anti-Christian activities, now continued by his replacement, even denying Christmas mail for the second year in a row.

There are also allegations that US Consul Harchick either suggested, demanded, or actually bribed, Ministry of Energy officials to deny electricity to Pulacharke Prison and the Ministry of Justice with the full knowledge of Hamid Karzai. It is alleged that a relative of Karzai was paid a bribe by a construction company in the Pulacharke area to divert electricity so it could be used for the profit of western construction companies. If true, this is a disturbing human rights abuse equal to the Japanese death camps of WWII. Just as upsetting is that I have been told that Karzai's Minister of Finance REFUSED to provide the Ministry of Justice with money to repair electricity and buy generators so that "Taliban Punishment" could be imposed on prisoners at Pulacharke.

What kind of sick twisted government is Hamid Karzai running? Stop your torture and abuse of Americans and Afghans now, or answer in court for your actions,

I am also requesting formal complaints and diplomatic objections by the American government and United Nations to the conditions at Pulacharke Prison and all Afghan Prisons, especially the FBI and US Department of Justice funded torture chamber at "Saderat" in Kabul and run by Karzai and Armullah Saleh. And that the UN investigates War Crimes by Saleh and his US FBI counterparts.
